Notice to Credit Applicants: If your application for business credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial if such statement is requested in writing within 60 days from the date you are notified of the denial decision. To obtain the statement, please contact Customer Service-DED, P.O. Box 5404, Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054-5404, or call 1-800-257-8451 Ext.4063. We will send you a written statement of reasons for the denial within 30 days of receiving your request. Notice: The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, D.C.

To help the United States Government fight terrorism and money laundering, Federal law requires us to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or business that opens an account or establishes a relationship. What this means for you: when you open an account or establish a relationship, we will ask for your name, street address, date of birth, and identification number, such as a social security number or tax payer identification number. For businesses, we will ask for the business name, street address and tax identification number. Federal law requires us to obtain this information. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents that will allow us to identify you. We appreciate your cooperation
